

Service Provider (mobile application and website provider):

Olife Energy, a.s.
11/6, 120 00 Praha
Czech Republic

IČO: 292 918 79

info@olife-energy.com
+420 225 341 007

Service Provider mediating service of charging electric vehicles on public charges operated by Service provider or third party companies. Service is provided through mobile application or web application.

Mobile application or web application do not collect any personal data. User is authenticated by combination of mobile device and account on this device. Mobile application have not access to the details of account on mobile device. If user loose device, reinstall mobile application (on iOS only) or change account on device than he loose access to his history (chargings, invoices).

The mobile application uses several permissions:

- Camera: to scan QR code for charger station identification.
- User location: to display user location on map.

None of data acquired due to these permissions is stored in the device or send out from the device by mobile application.

User can be requested to share anonymous data about application usage for debugging purposes.

Service website (net.olife-energy.com) uses google analytics to monitor it's visits.